

Pine Technical & Community College

Creating Our Future Workforce by Developing a Youth Pipeline

Pine Technical and Community College, Pine City, MN

April 17, 2018 – 1:00-3:00PM

1:00-1:30PM

Lunch and Networking

1:30-2:45PM

“Creating Our Future Workforce by Developing a Youth Pipeline” Presentation

Welcome

Joe Mulford – President, Pine Technical and Community College

GPS 45:93

Rick Olseen – Office of Congressman Richard M. Nolan

Pine City Joint Boards

Annette Freiheit – Superintendent, Pine City Public Schools

Pine Technical and Community College Career Prep Consortium

Kierstan Peck – Director of Student Success, Pine Technical and Community College & Post-Secondary Leader, Pine Tech Perkins Consortia

Minnesota Programs of Study

Becky Maki – Secondary Consortia Leader, Pine Tech Perkins Consortia

Jill Eck – Career and Technical Education Pathways Director, Minnesota State Secondary Counselors – Pine Tech Perkins Consortia

East Central Minnesota Education Cable Cooperative (ECMECC)

Marc Johnson – Director, ECMECC

Next Steps

Denine Rood – Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs, Pine Technical and Community College

2:45PM

Tours of Pine Technical and Community College

*Max Anderson – Recruitment and Admissions Specialist, Pine Technical and Community College
Jen Rancour – Student Success Coordinator, Pine Technical and Community College*

Note: Please bring your mobile device for an interactive activity.